Personal Data Protection Policy - KYMA RESOURCES FZCO

At KYMA RESOURCES FZCO, we prioritize the protection of our customers' personal data, whether collected online or offline. We are dedicated to employing the highest standards of information security and offer you the ability to update, modify, or remove your personal data at any time.

1. Collection of Personal Information/Data:

This policy details how KYMA RESOURCES FZCO collects, uses, and discloses personal information. We gather personal data through interactions with our website, business meetings, responses to marketing communications, and formal emails from us or third parties. This data may include identifiable details such as your name, address, email, IP address, or phone number. You have the option to provide or withhold this information. However, not providing certain data, such as information required for due diligence or credit assessment, may impact your ability to engage in specific business activities with us.

2. Use of Personal Information:

KYMA RESOURCES FZCO may use the collected data for purposes including fulfilling product or service requests, providing customer support, introducing new products, conducting research, sending marketing communications, and enhancing our business operations. We do not share, sell, rent, or trade personal information with third parties for promotional purposes.

3. Security:

We are committed to securing your personal information and will not share it with third parties without your consent, except where required to comply with legal obligations or during a transfer of ownership (e.g., merger or acquisition). Personal data may be transferred to other countries, which may have different data protection laws. We will safeguard your data as outlined in this policy and restrict access to those who need it to fulfill your requests.

4. Changes to Policy:

We may update this Personal Data Protection Policy periodically and encourage you to review it regularly. Changes will be announced on our website and, if you have not opted out of communications, you will be notified via email. Any modifications will not retroactively affect previously collected data without your consent. Continued use of our services indicates acceptance of these changes.
